Grand Knights Message

It was great to see so many of our Councils members, and their wives at our Christmas party on December 12 at Carmestros in Hilton. By all accounts, a good time was enjoyed by everyone who attended this event. Once again, our Christmas Committee headed up by Dick Rizzo and his wife Phyllis did a great job, along with help from Donna Sindon, MaryAnn Glasow, Dick Mazzatti, and Linda Kruger. Thanks also to our photographer TimGlasow for taking pictures and making us all look good!! (Especially the men.)

On January 3, 2014 the Diocese of Rochester will install the Most Rev. Salvatore Matano as its 9th Bishop of Rochester; during a special ceremony which will be held at the Sacred Heart Cathedral. Attendance at this Ceremony is by invitation only, but don't worry if you didn't receive a ticket, as I am guessing it will be all over the local evening news.

I am so sorry to report to all of you that Patrick J. O'Conner has been moved to the hospice area of Strong Hospital. Pat has always been a very active member in the 4th degree Kearney assembly and held the position of Color Corps Commander for many years. Pat has held many positions in the Knights of Columbus including Grand Knight, District Deputy, Faithful Navigator and has always worked tirelessly for the good of Father McGivney's Order. Please include Pat O'Conner in your prayers and thoughts.
