Grand Knights Message:

Fellow Knights of Council 11374,

With the recent notice that our Grand Knight, Bob Oswald, is stepping aside for a period of time I wanted to reach out and introduce myself to many of you that may not know me. As of July 1st I assumed the role of Deputy Grand Knight for our Council. With that role and in Bob's absence I will be covering the duties of Grand Knight and will continue to help implement the vision our Grand Knight has for the upcoming year. I expect that it will take me a period of time to get acclimated, but I know that I have a wonderful support group within the Council's Officers.

As a relative newcomer to the Knights (joined in 2015) compared to some of our esteemed long-term council members. I am pleased and humbled that the Council has honored me with my current role and responsibilities. I will endeavor to live up to that confidence and ensure the continued charitable efforts and goodwill that our Council has brought to our parishes and community.

As for my accessibility: I work full time but check email as time permits including evenings and weekends. My contact info is listed at the end of the newsletter.

With God's grace AND your support we will continue our long standing success story.

Best Regards,
Mark Gardone
Deputy (Acting) Grand Knight

A New Way to Get Social

Just in time for the new fraternal year, the Knights of Columbus Social Media Team has two new resources to help you make the most of your council's social media presence, whether you're just getting started or have thousands of Facebook followers!

Social Media Hub

As you probably know, the Knights of Columbus is everywhere on social media. With Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, YouTube, LinkedIn and Google+ pages, it can be hard to keep up with all the news coming from the K of C social channels. Now, the K of C Social Media Hub makes it easy for you! The feed, which can be found on kofc.org, (<http://kofc.org/un/en/news/social-media-feed.html>) pulls all our posts and tweets from around the web to a single page where you can view everything at once.

Social Media 101

In April, the Social Media Team published a guide for councils looking to optimize their social media presence. Councils interested in the printable PDF version of the guide should send an email to socialmedia@kofc.org. In the email, include your council's name, number and location. Also include links to your social media pages so the Supreme Council Social Media Team can follow you!

Now, you can also find the Social Media 101 Guide online by clicking here (<http://www.kofc.org/un/en/members/resources/social-media/index.html>). Each month, this webpage will be updated with new tips and tricks to help your council's social media presence continue to grow!

Thank you,

The K of C Supreme Council Social Media Team
